

“CAN PEACE BREAK OUT?”

Sunday, March 5, 2006
2:00 – 7:00 p.m.
Kent Presbyterian Church

Eastminster Presbytery has the honor of hosting
Moderator Rick Ufford-Chase
during his Lenten visit to the Synod of the Covenant.

Your Peacemaking Task Force invites you to an Inter-generational, International event, to engage with Rick and with each other around the peace and justice concerns that affect all of our lives as God’s children.

“Can Peace Break Out?” “Yes,” as we raise questions and seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit in worship, prayer, workshops and sharing together. Rick said at the recent Ghost Ranch Peacemaking Conference, “When we confront need... the trick is to name the fundamental principles that hold us together as a people and figure out how we are going to live into those principles.”

“Can Peace Break Out?” “Yes,” if we attend to Jesus’ words and actions as we face conflicts near at hand and around the world. Since Rick particularly wants to meet and speak with Young Adults, we especially welcome the influential voices of these future leaders. And there will be exciting hands-on children’s activities, as well.

“Can Peace Break Out?” Our Church has said, “Yes!” for 25 years with the particular focus that Peacemaking IS the Believer’s Calling. Join us in recognizing numerous creative ministries of Eastminster that extend Jesus’ circle of love to people who feel broken and oppressed. Participate in workshops and worship that strengthen our resolve to proclaim our witness to the love and justice of Jesus Christ. And enjoy the feast around an international buffet, sampling foods from the near and far corners of God’s sacred lands.
